

Crystal Sanchez

Crystal Sanchez is a media archivist in an IT world at the Smithsonian Institution, working on the Digital Asset Management System to preserve and provide access to digital collections from across the Smithsonian's 19 Museums, Archives, Libraries, Research Centers, and the Zoo. She has Masters degrees from NYU's Moving Image Archive and Preservation Program and FSU's Humanities with a focus on Media and Museum Studies. She is currently Chair of AIC's Electronic Media Specialty Group.